LEADERSHIP CLARKSVILLE

Welcome, Class of 2004!

You're about to embark upon a wonderful experience. If you thought everything you needed to know was learned in kindergarten, just wait until you've been through the next nine months of Leadership Clarksville classes!

Whether you're a native of Clarksville, Montgomery County or a recent transplant, there are things about this community you'll learn and better understand.

Leadership Clarksville is not about solving problems, but its goal and mission are to help community leaders such as yourselves receive meaningful insight into the area.

Now in its seventeenth year, Leadership Clarksville participants and alumni continue to build bonds and share a vision for a stronger community.

Your intensive study of the community begins with a visit to Fort Campbell and then continues throughout the year to encompass the following areas: Business, Industry and Agriculture; Government and Media; Health, Religion and Social Concerns; Law, Crime and Justice; Education; and finally, Arts and Entertainment.

So, for the next nine months, we hope that you'll build relationships with one another, strengthen your understanding of our community and thoroughly enjoy yourselves.
